FARMER BOYS FOR STRIKE BREAKERS

Employers Teaming Association at Chicago Imports Many Men to Take the Places of Striking Teamsters.

ARMS FOR NON-UNION DRIVERS

CHICAGO, May 1—Conditions in the teamsters strike were worse today than at any previous time. The strikers were more ugly and the victims were more open and violent and the attacks on non-union men were more frequent and bold than at any time since the commencement of the strike.

The chief cause of the increased belligerency on the part of the strikers and their friends is laid to the fact that the Employers Teaming association today brought 1,500 men into the city to take their places and 500 more are said to be now on the way and will arrive within 12 hours.

These men will receive the full pay of union men and it has been guaranteed to them that their positions will be permanent. Among them are 200 farmer boys from all the surrounding states who have volunteered their services and sought positions as drivers.

Tomorrow Winchester rifles will be carried in all wagons of the Employers Teaming association in open view. A number of non-union men have been arrested on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and today the attorneys for the Employers Teaming association called upon Chief of Police O'Neil and asked if their men had not the right to carry weapons provided they were held in open view and were not concealed. Chief O'Neil replied there was no law against it and arrangements were made by the employers to place rifles on every one of the wagons.

Purchase of Rifles.

Over a thousand of these weapons were purchased and during the latter part of the afternoon a number of wagons went through the streets with a rifle lying across the knees of the driver and his assistant.

When Mayor Dunne was informed of the fact that rifles would be carried by the non union men he was visibly disturbed and declared that the police will not be permitted to authorize the carrying of arms by anyone whether in the employ of the Employers Teaming association of affiliated with the strikers.

The chief of police will give no authority to any one to carry arms, he said.

City Council Takes Action.

The city council tonight passed a resolution directing the chief of police to enforce that portion of the state statutes which prohibits the carrying of rifles in the streets by unauthorized persons. President Shea of the Teamsters union said tonight that if the Employers Teaming association armed its drivers with Winchesters he would do the same with the union drivers.

"If it is legal for the non-union men to arm themselves" he said "it is certainly not illegal for us to do likewise."

There was a report late today that Mayor Dunne was about to force an adjustment of the trouble but this he declared tonight was incorrect.

Four men were seriously hurt during the fights today but the number of lightly injured is greatly in excess of this and it is impossible to state it accurately for the reason that many of those hurt disappeared in the crowd or were carried away by their friends as soon as possible after being injured.

Those seriously hurt today are: Otto Helmer shot in leg; Charles Kullett non union teamster badly beaten, nose broken and head cut; John Williams badly beaten; C. F. Ingalls badly beaten; William Crockett clubbed and stoned until insensible.

It is not expected any of the injured will die.

No decided increase in the number of men on strike was made today, the most important accession to the teamsters being the drivers of the delivery wagons of retail grocery stores. These declared that they would in no case call for goods at any wholesale house where a strike existed. As teamsters are on strike at practically all wholesale groceries in the city the visible supply of food, for the citizens of Chicago is limited to the stocks now held in the retail grocery stores.

Employers Demand Deliveries.

The Employers association this evening drove home a wedge into the ranks of the Chicago Team Owners association. This latter organization is composed of men who do teaming for many of the large business houses and particularly in the matter of hauling coal. They have fought shy so far of aiding the Employers to the extent of making deliveries on their contracts, going to the length of asking employers to refrain from requiring them to haul merchandise and asserting that if their men were stopped while on the streets there was nothing for them to do but to return to the barn. The employers this afternoon informed the team owners that they must make deliveries at once and continue to make them from this time on.

The team owners agreed to make deliveries as demanded. The union labor leaders who were indicted last Saturday in connection with the strike appeared in the criminal court today and gave bonds in the sum of $1,500.

MAYOR MAKES CHANGES IN DEPARTMENTS OF THE MAYOR

Mayor Henry D. Hall Names Alex Adams Chief of Police and Frederick Armbruster Chief of Fire Department—Albert W. Grey Gets Appointment as Street Commissioner.

Chief of Police---Alex Adams.
Chief of Fire Department---F. G. Armbruster.
Street Commissioner---Albert W. Crey.

In a communication to the city council last night which was read by City Clerk K. M. McMillen just before adjournment Mayor Henry D. Hall announced the following appointments. The reading of the list caused a distinct sensation in the crowded council chamber. The appointments were ratified on a roll call of the aldermen. The selection of F. G. Armbruster for chief of the fire department proved a great surprise to the property owners and insurance men who had brought strong pressure to bear for the retention of Chief L. E. Baty.

Chief of Police Alex Adams announced that he will take charge of his department next Monday morning. Fire Chief Armbruster will probably take charge of his department immediately and Street Commissioner Grey also expects to enter upon his duties at once. The former heads of the said departments announce their readiness to turn over their offices immediately.

Adams is a well known business man 36 years old. He was born in Canada but came to this city 10 years ago from Iowa and for over nine years has been engaged in the real estate business, being the senior member of the firm of Adams & Williams. He is a large property owner and an active member of the Real Estate exchange. He is a prominent member of the Masons and Fellows, Royal Arcanum and Modern Woodmen orders and is an officer of the Grace Episcopal church. In appointing Mr. Adams to the office of chief of police Mayor Hall recognized the east side where Mr. Adams has a handsome home.

Adams Talks.

In an interview last evening, Chief of Police Alex Adams said: "I have arranged to take charge of the department next Monday morning as I desire a little time in which straightout some business matters. As for my policy it is my purpose to enforce the laws and ordinances of the city in an impartial manner irrespective of any clique or party affiliations whatsoever. This appointment came to me unsought and friends have urged me upon me to accept. My only motive in accepting the appointment is the good that I might do."

For Captaincy.

It is said that Charles Williams formerly marshal of Cripple Creek arrived in the city last evening at the request of James F. Burns, who had promised him it is said the position of chief of the police department. As the mayor had decided upon Alex Adams the appointment of captain was offered it is said, to the Cripple Creek man and he will accept the appointment if it is satisfactory to Mr. Burns. In the event of Williams being appointed captain J. A. Gregory and John W. Rowan the four in city detective under Former Chief King and the latter until recently a police officer of Colorado City, are said to be slated for city detectives. In the event that the appointment of captain is turned down by Williams, Gregory will expect to land the captaincy.

Experience of Firemen.

Mr. Armbruster has been a resident of this city for 20 years and was at one time in charge of a hose cart on Huerfano street. He was at that time a member of the old volunteer department, being [illegible] with the hook and ladder [illegible] Chief Baty [illegible] Honolulu. Mr. Armbruster was assistant chief of the fire department with [illegible] in charge. He is now in the electric [illegible] and dealing [illegible] building [illegible] the Stratton estate.

It is understood that Mr. Armbruster will take charge of the department at once—but for a while will retain the members of the present force in order that he may look after and get the run of things.

Ready to Vacate.

Chief Reynolds was seen in his office immediately after the appointments were announced last evening and said: "I am ready to give my traps any moment Mr. Adams is ready to step in and take charge of the office. During my term of office I have given the people the very best service at my command and I believe the department to be in better condition than ever before in the history of the city. I have not yet decided what I will do when I leave the office, but of one thing you may be sure I will take a good rest before going to work at anything."

Fire Chief E. E. Baty was notified of the appointment of his successor by a Gazette representative last evening and in reply said: "Mr. Hall is mayor of the city and we must all admit that he has a right to appoint whom he thinks best for the position. As for myself I am proud of the department as it stands today and proud indeed, of my record as chief. I stand ready to turn the department over at any time my successor may wish to take charge."

Chief Baty said he had not decided what business he would engage in after leaving the office. He is considering a number of offers.

MAY DAY REIGN OF TERROR IN WARSAW

Nearly 100 Persons Killed or Wounded. Soldiers in Various Parts of the City. Troops Uncontrollable.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN VICTIMS

WARSAW, May 1—Nearly 100 persons were killed or wounded in disturbances in various quarters of Warsaw today. The troops fired volleys in the streets and obeyed all orders to act with moderation. They fired into the crowds of demonstrators and workmen in several instances of firearms and bombs. Many women and children among the dead and dying.

What appears to be a reign of terror exists tonight the city presents a gloomy aspect and the future of the entire community augurs ill.

The presence of numerous patrols of Cossack cavalry and infantry are the only reminder of lurking danger.

No untoward incident was reported until after noon. The first disturbances occurred between 1 and 2 p. m. when processions of several thousand workmen carrying red flags marched along Zlazna street. The demonstration was quite orderly and proceeded without molestation for some distance. Suddenly several squadrons of Uhlans appeared but without interfering with the procession and took up a position along the sidewalks while the workmen passed through. The lines then a company of infantry approached from the front and immediately the cavalry charged into the procession driving it with the flat of their swords into a disorganized mass.

Bloody Massacre.

When the cavalry withdrew the infantry fired a volley whereupon the demonstrators turned and fled. The infantry continued to discharge volleys into the retreating, shrieking multitude. Thirty-one persons were killed and many wounded and many of the latter will die. The shooting is described as being quite unprovoked. It has caused the most intense indignation among all classes in Warsaw. Many of those who were killed or wounded were shot in the back, showing that they were running away when they were struck.

Another terrible scene was enacted at 5 p. m. at the corner of Zlota and Sosnore streets when workmen fired from behind a wall at a patrol which immediately opened fire on the passing crowds, killing or wounding 20 persons. The first bomb throwing occurred at 9.20 o'clock tonight when a bomb was thrown into a Cossack patrol near the Vienna station.

Three Cossacks and one policeman were killed and two women who were leaving the station at the time were severely wounded by the explosion of the bomb. Cossacks fired a number of volleys and it is reported that many persons were killed or wounded. Troops surrounded the whole [illegible] quarter. It has been impossible to secure any accurate information as to the [illegible] in this affair.

Fired Into Another Crowd.

At 10.45 p. m. disturbances [illegible] at the Zombawska gate of the [illegible] of Prague across the Vistula. A great crowd had assembled [illegible] threatening the troops. [illegible] fired upon the crowd, killing [illegible] wounding many others.

It was reported by telegraph [illegible] Lodz that a crowd there had [illegible] military patrol whereupon the [illegible] fired and killed two men and [illegible] a boy. Later a similar [illegible] in Baluki square, in Lodz [illegible] persons were killed.

In Lodz also at 9 o'clock [illegible] bomb was thrown at a patrol [illegible] not effective. The [illegible] a crowd and killed three [illegible] two.

A student who was at [illegible] lamations in Wolla, a [illegible] was killed tonight by a patrol.

People at White Heat.

Today's bloodshed is likely to seriously affect the situation and cause a general strike. The [illegible] the people is at white heat and [illegible] is much apprehension regarding the possible events of May 5, the anniversary of the fourteenth anniversary of the proclamation of the Duma [illegible] when disturbances and [illegible] always occur.

Tonight there is every [illegible] trouble. All the ground that has been gained since the disturbances in January has now been lost. [illegible] passenger trains are leaving [illegible] night and these are [illegible] refugees and manned by officials, engineering departments, all railroad drivers, firemen and porters [illegible] quit work.

NEW CONSTRUCTION OF IRRIGATION LAW OF 1899

DENVER, May 1—An important decision was handed down by the new supreme court today construing the irrigation law of 1899. A suit was brought by the Fort Lyons Canal company, which operates in the Arkansas valley, against E. R. Chew, the engineer of division Number 2 at Pueblo and several senior and junior appropriators.

The plaintiff company contended that the law was unconstitutional. They were supported by the district court of Otero county. The supreme court, in the opinion written by Justice Campbell, holds the law constitutional and makes an elaborate construction of the act which is contrary to the construction placed upon it by the water commissioners and the lower courts all over the state. Chief Justice Gabbert and Justice Steele concurred.

Senior appropriators when they had no use for their water have loaned it to juniors according to the notice provided in the statute. The decision of the court is that this cannot be done by the senior companies because it prejudices the rights of the intervening junior appropriators and in effect extends the time of the senior appropriator over that of the next junior. The court holds, however, that if the senior appropriator lends to a junior water which he would and could under his appropriation use himself then the loan is legal. But if he has no further use for the water which he seeks to loan such a loan is illegal.

FORMER LEVY ARGUES IN DEFENSE OF NAN PATTERSON

NEW YORK, May 1—"This case is one of deliberate murder or suicide. There can be no manslaughter about it. There should be no compromise verdict. She is either guilty of murder in the first degree or not at all."

With these words Abraham Levy, ex counsel for Nan Patterson, brought his address this afternoon his five hour argument in defense of the former chorus girl charged with the murder of Caesar Young.

During the long argument Miss Patterson fanned the jury within sight. The courtroom was packed, many attorneys being men who struggled to get a look at the defendant. At times during the afternoon the [illegible] was crowded with [illegible] recent officers crowded [illegible] the rear of the room [illegible] the case [illegible] the district attorney's office in making thorough investigation of a story [illegible] the suppression of certain evidence in the case. A number of witnesses have been subpoenaed and affidavits will be taken from them at the conclusion of the trial.

Emphasized Suicide Theory.

The suicide theory was strictly emphasized by Mr. Levy, who contended that the powder stains on Young's fingers proved that he had shot himself. [illegible] on a trained athlete like Young. He also ridiculed the idea that Miss Patterson would have chosen a crowded public street as a place for murder when she had many opportunities for a secret attack where there would have been little danger of detection. Assistant District Attorney Rand will reply for the people, and it is possible the case will go to the jury tomorrow afternoon. [illegible] Mr. Levy who [illegible] hours [illegible] his hour [illegible] the effect of Mr. Levy's [illegible] Miss Patterson [illegible] pronounced Miss Patterson [illegible] the prisoner [illegible] the case.

RAG-CHEWING EXHIBITION WON BY DES MOINES UNDERWRITERS

Des Moines got revenge yesterday for the defeat administered by Colorado Springs on Sunday, taking the locals down the line by a score of 6 to 3. The work of the visitors varied from good to brilliant while that of the Millionaires varied from mediocre to bad. In fact, the form shown in Sunday's game was just reversed.

It is evident that the Underwriters are out for the championship in rag-chewing as well as baseball and it is a cinch that they won't get the booby prize. If there was a decision to which they didn't object yesterday no one noticed it. They began in rasticating the cud when the first man went to bat in the first inning and hadn't quit when the bus reached the Alamo after the game. Manager Cantillion and Captain Long, who were on the bench, took leading parts in the anvil serenade.

In the third inning the visitors became so noisy that Umpire Mace was compelled to put Catcher Wakefield out of the game and a little later he sent the loquacious backstop out of the grounds, holding up his fingers as if to indicate that the offender talked at out $10 worth. After that Wakefield continued to murmur from the grandstand. To add to the solemnity of the occasion Hogreiver, of "Pig Creek," as one fan called him, told Mace for the benefit of the grandstand, incidentally, that they would "beat his face up" when they got him "down home." Mace didn't look a bit scared, and Fink's orchestra went right on playing.

Ganley, the first man up in the first inning, walked, scampered to third on Hogreiver's single and scored on Coffin's long fly to left field. In the fourth Towne sent an easy grounder to McKean but the Colorado Springs captain-shortstop threw wild and the runner went right on to second. Pennell had too much butter on his fingers and muffed Manske's fly, allowing Towne to score. In the sixth Steele led off with a corking three-bagger between center and right and scored on Fisk's out to Pennell in left field. The visitors made it three more in the eighth as follows: Caffyn let the ball hit him on the leg and took first, stealing second on the next ball delivered; Steele flew out to Swormstedt, Fisk singled, scoring Caffyn and taking second himself on Pennell's error; Towne followed with another hit, scoring Fisk; Manske hit the third consecutive safe one, advancing the Des Moines catcher to second; Ganley made the second out by flying to Blake; Hogreiver hit her on the nose for two sacks, the fourth hit of the inning, scoring Towne and chasing Manske around to third. Frisbee fanned, retiring the side.

For Colorado Springs, Pennell walked in the first inning, Delehanty followed with a single and went on to second on an unsuccessful attempt to catch Pennell at third; Pennell scored and Delehanty took third on McKean's out at first; Knabe fouled out to Towne and Mellor singled, scoring Delehanty; Blake followed with another hit but Mitze made the third out from short to first. The locals scored their third and last run in the sixth as follows: Mellor went out from Manske to Rossman, Blake singled, Mitze flew out to Ganley, Curtis hit for three sacks, scoring Blake, but making the third out at home by trying to stretch the hit into a home run. McKean was criticised for coaching Curtis in on the long hit for there wasn't a ghost of a show to make it; the ball was being relayed back to the diamond before the runner had reached third.

Features of the contest were two brilliant double plays executed by Ganley and Rossman and Hogreiver and Rossman, respectively, and a pretty one of the same variety by Delehanty and Mellor. All of the doubles were made on fly balls shot over to first before the runners could get back to the bag.

Des Moines will play here today and tomorrow. Sioux City is scheduled for May 5, 6 and 7. During the present at-home series all games will be called at 3:30 o'clock except on Sundays. All Sunday games will be at 3 o'clock. Ladies' days will be given each week, yesterday being the first of the year.

DENVERITES PLAY FAST GAME AS RESULT OF BEING ON THE CARPET SCORE WAS 5 TO 1.

Special to The Gazette.

DENVER, May 1.—The Denver bunch were on the carpet overnight and as they were not sure of their heads they faced Eddy Quick, the Omaha twirler, with a do or die expression. The score was 5 to 1.

The results showed in the hit column. Denver won in the eighth but Omaha players were also on their toes and many runs that Denver had coming were nipped by lightning plays. Bohannan was invincible and with better support would have shut the visitors out.

A free base and four hits made Denver's two runs in the fourth. Exactly the same combination resulted in two more tallies in the fifth. Belden's home-run in the eighth came with no one on bases.

Omaha's lone tally came when Gonding was hit with a pitched ball. Quick sacrificed him to second and then Bohannan threw the ball away which put Johnny on third. Thiel made a beautiful bunt and Gonding scored.

Although Dunn got a draw it was apparent to everybody that he was outclassed, for Attell did not exert himself at any time and was as fresh at the finish as when he entered the ring. In the first round but eight blows were struck. Dunn forced the fighting and swung wildly. Attell was cool. From the second round on Attell landed wherever and whenever he pleased and simply toyed with Dunn.

[illegible] DESIRABLE ATHLETIC FIELD

HIGH SCHOOL AUTHORITIES WILL START CAMPAIGN TO RAISE $1,500.—BUSINESS MEN WILL AID.

In a speech before the students of the High school yesterday morning Principal J. C. Richards announced that a campaign will be commenced immediately to secure a permanent athletic field for the High school. It is felt that the future growth of athletics in the school is dependent upon its securing a field of its own before the opening of the football season this fall. There has been some trouble over the use of Washburn field this spring and Principal Richards wants a field where he can train his teams by themselves.

He announced yesterday that four prominent business men of the city had assured him of their support to the extent of $100 each, and that he expects to raise the rest of the money in the school and among its friends. He estimates that the cost of the field will be $1,500, providing a site can either be secured as a gift, or leased by the school board for a term of years.

It is planned to have a field of sufficient size to include a football field, a baseball diamond and a quarter-mile track, bleachers and a club house, with lockers, shower baths and other necessary equipments for the use of the team. The field will be for the use of the grade schools as well as the High school.

Another meeting of the student body will be held Friday at which time voluntary subscriptions will be taken for the project, and Mr. Richards expects to have the preliminary steps in the matter in shape to present to the school board for ratification at its meeting next Tuesday. Several members of the senior class have expressed themselves in favor of applying the proceeds of the class play to the athletic field fund rather than using them for the purchase of statuary.

[illegible] STATE TRACK MEET HERE

Captain E. V. Painter and Graham Lamb of the Colorado college track team went to Denver yesterday to open negotiations for the holding of the state intercollegiate track meet next Saturday in this city instead of in Denver as had previously been decided by the state association.

The State School of Mines has requested that, owing to the fact that Denver university has not completed its own field and the meet must therefore be held at Union park where there is no cinderpath, the meet be transferred to Washburn field at Colorado college. How the State Agricultural college and the State Normal school would view such a change is not known. It was with a view to ascertaining the position of Denver university on the proposed change and afterwards discussing the matter with the other schools that Painter and Lamb yesterday went to Denver.

[illegible] AMENDMENTS [illegible] TRANSACTED BY COUNCIL

All of the aldermen were present when the council was called to order at 8:30 o'clock last evening. Every seat in the auditorium was occupied and many citizens were obliged to stand during the entire proceedings.

Thirty east side taxpayers were represented in a petition asking for the abandonment of the East Boulder street reservoir. The matter was referred to the water committee.

Citizens residing in the vicinity of the Steele school petitioned for crosswalks at Del Norte and Weber streets and asked that the surface of the streets be graveled. Referred to the street committee.

A petition for an arc light at the corner of Harrison avenue and North Spruce street was referred to the street committee.

J. G. McCullough requested to be granted a license to conduct a fruit stand on the west side of the Antlers park, opposite the Rio Grande depot, and the matter was referred to the committee on public grounds and streets.

Jobs Wanted.

Plumbing Inspector T. J. Jones presented a communication recommending Joseph Edwards for the position of assistant superintendent of sewers. Referred to the sewer committee.

W. G. Black made application for appointment as storekeeper, which was read and placed on file.

City Attorney Robinson presented a check for the sum of $453.83, being the amount of the judgment, costs and interest recovered by the city in the case against C. P. Quinlan, and the same was accepted.

Applications from the South End Pharmacy by Otto Fehringer, and the City Drug store by Otto Fehringer were read, and on motion of Alderman Tucker the licenses were granted subject to the resolution adopted by the council governing liquor licenses. Those voting against the licenses were Aldermen Seldomridge, Hill and Holden.

Accept Blanket Bond.

Alderman Tucker of the finance committee reported that he had made arrangements for a blanket bond covering all of the city officials at a rate slightly lower than that heretofore [illegible] charged for the bond of the city treasurer alone. The matter was referred to the finance committee at a former meeting with power to act and the committee had closed arrangements with the Title, Guaranty and Trust company of Scranton, Pa., represented in this city by the Colorado Investment and Realty company.

The premium charged by the company is $374, and the total amount of the bond is $240,000, divided as follows: City clerk, $10,000; auditor, $10,000; police judge, $2,000; engineer, $3,000; chief of fire department, $2,000; assistant chief fire department, $1,000; chief health department and city physician, $2,000; chief of police, $3,000; street commissioner, $2,000; superintendent waterworks, $2,000; market master, $2,000; building inspector, $5,000; plumbing inspector, $2,000; janitor, $1,000; assistant treasurer, $25,000; stenographer, $1,000; two clerks to water commissioner, $5,000; assistant water superintendent, $1,000; superintendent cemetery, $1,000; water commissioner, $10,000; treasurer, $150,000. On motion of Alderman Seldomridge the bond was approved subject to the approval of the city attorney.

No Appropriation.

Alderman Tucker of the finance committee reported adversely upon the request of the Real Estate exchange for an appropriation of $200 for the entertainment of the state exchange, and the recommendation of the committee was adopted.

Alderman Holden reported regarding the Bear Creek bridge, the abutments of which were almost washed away, and called upon Assistant City Engineer Brenton to report the result of his investigations. Mr. Brenton had looked over the ground with a view to changing the channel of the stream, and expressed the opinion that such work would cost about $900 and would still be only a temporary relief. He recommended that a concrete wall be constructed from the Midland track to the Bear creek bridge at a cost of about $2,500 which he believed would be a permanent improvement. The council decided to visit the region and make a personal inspection this evening at 5 o'clock and to request the board of county commissioners to accompany them.

The notice vacating the Out West addition was read and referred to the street committee.

Sewer Changed.

Alderman Verner from the sewer committee announced that the work of changing that portion of sewer line No. 9, under the Kiowa street trestle had been finished, and recommended that the 775 feet of sewer line on South Nevada avenue, washed out by the last floods, be replaced under the direction of the city engineer and that rock be placed to protect the sewer lines from washouts at the Midland bridge and the Short Line yards.

The matter of opening up Audley place by the purchase of a lot was referred to the finance committee with power to act. The council appropriated the money to purchase the lot and open the street.

On motion of Mr. Seldomridge the contract held by Mr. Irwin for looking up the water rights of the city was extended four months to August 10.

Alderman Verner of the ordinance committee asked for further time with reference to the matter of preparing the ordinances, which was granted.

Bills and salary roll amounting to $9,994.30 were read and allowed.

The bill of Patrick Lee for trimming trees at the cemetery, amounting to $260, was read and allowed, but the remainder of the bill went over without action.

Bids for Lumber.

On motion the treasurer was instructed to advertise for bids for the purchase of 200,000 feet of Oregon fir lumber for the use of the street department, and a carload of cement for the use of the street, sewer and fire departments.

The appointments of the mayor, Alex Adams for chief of police, F. G. Armbruster, chief of fire department; and Albert W. Grey, street commissioner, were then read and confirmed by the council.

Alderman Albin then moved that when the council adjourn it be to meet next Thursday evening. Carried.

[illegible] MIDLAND MAY BE WESTERN OUTLET FOR C. & S.

Gossip in railroad circles is to the effect that the Colorado Midland, connecting Colorado Springs with the western part of the state, is soon to furnish an outlet to the west for the Colorado and Southern. Railroad men believe that the Colorado and Southern will secure the Rio Grande's interest in the Colorado Midland and that that road will be extended from Grand Junction to a connection with the Western Pacific and that it will use the Western Pacific terminals in Salt Lake City.

That there is some destiny for the Colorado Midland, not made plain at present, is apparent, as General Manager Vallery is putting down heavier rails everywhere, rebuilding with stone and iron and steel many of the bridges and in other ways placing the property on a better physical basis than it has ever been. Plans are now developing for straightening curves and reducing grades and it is proposed to place the road on an equality with the Rio Grande, its competitor.

The Colorado Midland, railroad men say, offers the solution of the problem of how the Rock Island road is to get an outlet through Colorado to the Pacific coast. It is generally understood that when the Moffat road is finished the Burlington will have such an agreement that it will operate over it between Denver and Salt Lake City. This leaves the Rock Island as the only Colorado and eastern road that has not an outlet to the coast via Colorado.

[illegible] REPORTS ON [illegible] BOULDER DITCH

DEAL BELIEVED TO HAVE FALLEN THROUGH AND NO EXTENSION OF OPTION IS GRANTED.

Up to midnight last night stockholders of the Golden Cycle Gold Mining company, who reside in Colorado Springs received no word from the meeting yesterday in St. Louis, of the officers of the company, and it was the general belief that the option held by the Crawford syndicate, of New York, on the Golden Cycle, Gold Knob, Theresa and the Logan group, contiguous property on Bull hill in the Cripple Creek district, was not taken up. Messrs. Fred Bollard and C. E. Brady expected some report from the meeting but both were disappointed.

In an interview late last night Mr. Brady said: "I have had no report from the meeting. If the option was taken up I would have heard without doubt. It may have been extended, but I doubt it."

[illegible] SCHOOL BOARD [illegible] INSPECTOR NO. 2

G. H. BRUENING TO SUCCEED HIMSELF. SPECIAL LEVY IS AUTHORIZED AMOUNTING TO ONE $1,000.

G. H. Bruening was yesterday afternoon elected to succeed himself as president of the board of education of school district No. 2. There was no opposition, the number of votes cast being about 20. A special levy of one and a half mills was also authorized, which makes, on a valuation of $700,000, a levy of over $1,000. This "special tax was authorized for any purpose to which the board may see fit to put it, and it is probable that in the course of another year an addition of one or two rooms may be made to the Cheyenne Road school house.

A special meeting of the school board will be held Friday night for the appointment of teachers for next year. Mrs. Lillie J. Hinch and Frank Cotton, secretary, are the other two members of the board.

The school census of the district has just been completed by Miss Flora Foster, and shows the school population to be about 110.

District No. 2 embraces the territory west of Boulevard park to the Teller county line and extends as far north as a continuation of First street, Ivywild. It includes Broadmoor, South Cheyenne canon and points on the Short Line. Outside of Colorado Springs, Colorado City and Manitou, it is the wealthiest district in the county.

"BIL ME COME TO YOU."

A New Song by Colorado Springs Authors.

A new song published by the Eldorado Music company of this city has just been placed on the market here and elsewhere and it promises to become one of the popular hits of the season.

The words are from the pen of M. G. Quackenbush, author of the lyrics of the songs, "In the Shadow of the Rockies," "She's Sleeping," "Pretty Summer Girl," "In That Beautiful Isle of Hush," etc. Prof. Sam Rosenberg, musical director of the Empire theater, is the composer of the music for this new song. Being so thoroughly acquainted with all the popular music of the day enables him to give a song just the music it needs to make it as it should be and he has done so in the music of "Bil me Come to You." Prof. Rosenberg has at present several fine compositions placed with well known music publishing firms in the east, which are meeting with fine success.

Finely colored views illustrating this song are now being made and the people of Colorado Springs will have a chance to see this song illustrated in a very short while. At the time of the illustrating and singing of this song in Colorado Springs, it will also be sung and illustrated in four theaters in New York city, a contract to that effect being signed [illegible]

THE RIOTS IN POLAND.

MAY DAY in Poland proved to be what had been predicted, a day of riot and bloodshed. In Warsaw, the storm center of Polish agitation, thirty persons were killed and many more wounded in the conflict between workingmen and the government troops, and other affrays are reported which will probably be found to have been equally serious.

This incident, again shows the utter uselessness of the government policy of repression. So far as the Poles are concerned, it has succeeded to some degree for nearly a century and a half, ever since the partition of their country between Russia, Prussia and Austria. But conditions steadily grow worse, the people become more and more discontented, and the leaders constantly more aggressive and open in their defiance of the Muscovite government.

The Poles have always regarded their rulers as an alien race, which they really are—and it is extremely doubtful if they can ever be reconciled to being ruled from St. Petersburg. Certainly they will never regard it favorably so long as the present tyrannous methods are followed. If the Russians had long ago adopted a policy of conciliation, if they had granted some degree of autonomy while yet retaining the real sources of power, it might be different. The Poles are intensely patriotic—that is, they are devoted to their own country, not to Russia—but it is reasonable to suppose that in half a century and a half they would, if rightly treated, have acquired some respect for and fidelity to their government.

But so far from accomplishing this end, Russian rule with its severity, only served to intensify the fires of patriotism. The spirit of Kosciusko is still alive in Poland. If the Russian people ever rise against their government it will likely be because of the agitation which emanates from Poland, and that Poland will be the soul of the revolution. And events indicate that the time for this to happen is not far off.

THE NEW SCOUT CRUISERS.

The three scout cruisers, bids for the construction of which were opened in Washington a few days ago, will be a new type of vessel in the American Navy. As the name indicates, they are designed more for scout duty than as fighting ships, and the chiefest element is speed rather than armament. In time of war it will be their business to keep track of the enemy's fleet, to reconnoiter just as a scouting party does for military operations.

The vessels will each be of 3,750 tons displacement and will have a contract speed of twenty-four and a half knots. The bids for their construction ranged from $1,000,000 to $1,875,000 apiece, a disparity which may result in the Government rejecting these bids and calling for others. It is likely that turbine engines will be used, for the first time in our Navy. The success of this form of engine in the merchant service has been so great that it is coming to be used in warships, and already some of the new vessels in the British navy have been fitted with turbines. The result, of course, is greatly increased speed.

Craft of this type will probably play an important part in the naval warfare of the future. The uncertainty as to the whereabouts of Cervera's fleet during the Spanish-American war will be readily recalled. For several weeks that squadron of six big ships and two destroyers was as completely lost as if it had been swallowed up by the sea, so far as American knowledge was concerned. Admiral Sampson had no ships which he could detach for scout duty, and so he had to wait until somebody told him where to find the enemy. Cervera could have slipped upon him unawares if he had been so inclined.

Early, if the Japanese had a few such vessels at their disposal they might have located Rojestvensky's fleet before it got through the Straits of Malacca—assuming, of course, that they cared to prevent its entry into the Pacific.

The construction of these vessels shows the degree of perfection to which the American Navy is being brought. It is still weak in torpedo boats and destroyers, but many competent authorities think that even the five battleships built, building and authorized are strong enough even for present demands, but gradually new craft of all kinds are being added and it will not be long before our Navy will rank in actual fighting strength next to that of Great Britain.

THE Y. M. C. A. DEBT.

The Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. have determined that the present floating debt of the Association shall be paid in the next few weeks, and to this end ask the general co-operation of the community. In view of what the organization has accomplished in and for the benefit of this city it hardly seems that commendation is necessary, but a few words of explanation of its financial condition are proper at this time.

The Association has a mortgage indebtedness upon real estate and buildings of $[illegible], drawing 6 per cent interest. There is a floating indebtedness of between $6,500 and $5,000 which, with the exception of a small account representing current [illegible] bears interest at six per cent. The annual income [illegible] about $4,500 is derived from rents from its buildings and the same amount from members. The expenses are between $12,000 and $13,000 a year, including the interest of $1,800 on the bonded debt, leaving a deficit on account of current expenses of between $800 and $1,000. This includes salaries, light, heat, repairs, [illegible] interest on the floating debt, leaving a deficit on account of current expenses of between $3,000 and $4,000 a year, which has heretofore been generously met by subscription. The directors propose to raise $12,000 to be applied to the discharge of the floating debt and to the current expenses of this year. Of this amount $7,000 has already been pledged, leaving a balance of $5,000 which ought to be quickly raised in this city without difficulty.

The management of the Association has at times been criticised on account of the flagging indebtedness, but those who indulge in the criticism may be unfamiliar with the facts. Among the subscribers to the original fund was the late W. S. Stratton, who promised $10,000, but the money had not been paid at the time of his death, and it was not a legal obligation which his executors could recognize, especially in view of the litigation which arose over his will.

An additional $5,000 was also promised in a few large subscriptions which the committee had every reason to expect, but unforeseen business complications affecting these subscriptions prevented its payment. Had this $15,000 been received, which the building committee confidently and reasonably counted upon, and in reliance upon which the building contracts were made, the Association would have had no floating debt and would now be in much better financial condition.

With the discharge of its floating debt the directors hope to make the Association self-supporting insofar as its actual running expenses are concerned. It must be remembered, however, that in a health resort such as Colorado Springs many of the young men, active members of the Association, are able to earn only very small incomes and can not contribute as liberally as do the members in many other cities. But the very fact that here in Colorado Springs are a great many young men who have come for the benefit of their health, and who have no family ties here, makes the Association doubly valuable to the city. That it supplies an actual need which no other organization can fill is proven by its remarkable growth, especially since the new building was completed. In point of membership rank in proportion to the population of the city it is now the largest Association in the United States.

Money contributed to this cause not only goes for a worthy purpose, but it is a good business investment. The Y. M. C. A. makes better men of the rising generation and thus improves moral conditions in the city. For this reason it is a good thing for Colorado Springs and a good thing to help.

Poor strike-ridden Chicago. Home of mob violence, lawlessness, etc. The newspapers of the Windy City now have an opportunity to rehash some of their last summer's editorials on the Cripple Creek strike and apply them to the local situation.

The Wisconsin legislature has made it a misdemeanor to tip a Pullman porter. Now let it pass a law forbidding the porter to ignore the presence of the man who obeys the first law.

This season the commencement day orators will leave off expounding the Constitution long enough to discuss the strategy of Oyama and the problems of the Far East.

Admiral Dewey predicts that the Russians will win the naval battle "unless" certain things happen. That is, the Russians will win unless they lose. How wonderful!

In Russia the Czar is omnipotent. Perhaps if he had issued an imperial ukase suspending May day for this year those riots in Poland would not have happened.

Andrew Carnegie has given away $130,000,000 and is still burdened with riches. But then he never gave any money to Banker Bigelow to invest.

Mr. Bryan says "it is too far ahead to tell what will be done in 1908." Not at all. A Republican president will be elected.

INSECTS ON TREES.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

I believe it would be of great interest to your readers if a few experienced horticulturists would discuss through your columns the best method of eradicating the leaf roller, which has worked with such ruinous effect upon the ash trees in this locality for the past few years. The willow trees were seriously affected last season by a black insect that gathered about each twig, sapping the back. Washing them off with a hose apparently did no good whatever. The small twigs upon which the insects gathered are dead this spring.

HIGH PRICE FOR LAMBS.

It is estimated that over half the lambs fed in northern Colorado have gone to market. Unless something unforeseen occurs the season will have been the most satisfactory, in point of profits, that the feeders have ever experienced. The highest price reached in Chicago this season was $8.25. The top last year was $7.50; in 1903, $7.90; in 1902, $7.60; in 1901, $5.85; in 1900, $7.55.—Fort Collins Express.

WHY NOT?

Colorado is building up a very rapid rate and we expect to have the census taker catch us at 1,000,000 or more when he comes around in 1910. Guess what Glenwood Springs will do toward swelling this number. We are 2,000 now we will be 5,000 then. If not, why not 10,000? We feel sure that we are going to double our population in the next two years, for we smell it in the air, but with a united exertion, can't we make it 5,000?—Glenwood Springs Avalanche.

LOCAL NON-PARTISANSHIP.

The independent voter was an important factor in the municipal elections held throughout Colorado recently, and particularly in the smaller towns and villages. Even where a bluff was made at putting up party tickets, politics cut little figure. This tendency towards non-partisanship in local elections is wholesome, and should be encouraged. In the broader field of state and national politics, party organization is necessary and beneficial, but in local affairs it is harmful.—Telluride Journal.

The Indian as a Cadet

HOW THE GOVERNMENT TRANSFORMS JAMES' FIRE CLOUD

A GLANCE at the training of the average Indian pupil, as he is found today in the government boarding schools, is of interest in view of the proposed plan for making the Carlisle school a sort of West Point, where Indians may be fitted for army service. As most of these schools are founded somewhat on a military basis, with the boys organized in battalions for military drill and discipline, it is easy to see what are the qualifications which mark the Indian as a cadet.

Not long ago a student named James Fire Cloud came from a western reservation to enter the Hampton school. Strangely enough, thirteen years before, while yet a pappoose, he had been at Hampton a short time with his father, who was among the first of the Indians educated at that school. That was in the days when a few Indian men brought their wives and families to school, and occupied small cottages in a portion of the grounds then set apart for them, and called "the reservation." James went home with his parents while still a small boy and returned, years afterward, a full-grown and well-schooled young man. The interval between his departure and his return had wrought great changes in the Indians and in their schools. Indian education had progressed wonderfully, and was a very different matter for the son from what it had been for the father.

During most of his boyhood James had attended the reservation schools during the winter, and had roamed the prairie on horseback in the summer. But all the while he had lived day after day the monotonous life of the reservation—a reservation that was even unusually small and isolated, a mere dot upon the map of one of our western states, far removed from any railroad. They who lived upon it were no one but their own people. Nothing stirs their wonder or their imagination. All the faculties of their minds are sluggish. They are asleep.

The Boys Awakening.

Now the boy wakes up. He is at a boarding school in a populous and busy community. There are more things going on around him to see and do than he had ever thought of, but they are all strange. He is lonely, too, among so many strangers, and homesick, but with characteristic [illegible] he conceals it. For a year or two he stands around more or less [illegible], with other Indian boys, all of them sturdy looking fellows, with bronze-hued faces, alert, and observing, but silent as the sphinx. For the one conspicuous Indian trait which is the last to change with his acquired education and knowledge of the world, is his taciturnity when among strangers.

Like most of his companions Fire Cloud has a heavy shock of straight, black hair hanging low over his forehead, a bronze complexion, and a slouching gait. His legs are slightly bowed, for at home he was from earliest youth a cowboy and a rider of racing ponies. His tricks on horseback were those of a thoroughbred Indian. But he rides no more at present, for now he enters upon a new routine of life. His wide western sombrero has given place to a cadet's relief cap; his moccasins to shoes that must be shined daily. He wears a blue uniform and drills with an Indian company in the school battalion. He is in the schoolroom the greater part of every day, and even for many of the remaining hours he has some prescribed duty. On two or three half-days of each week he works in one of the shops learning a trade.

Routine of a Day.

He has an hour or two in the morning after his 6 o'clock breakfast, and another in the afternoon of the days when he doesn't have to drill or work, when he may, and usually does, play ball. He is an inveterate and very skillful ball player, and on half-holidays will usually be found in front of the "wigwam" practising a curve pitch or catching with a padded glove. In the evening he does his studying in the schoolroom under the eye of one of the teachers. If it is summer he perhaps has time for a swim in the bathhouse before attending roll-call in the wigwam at 9 o'clock. Half an hour later, when the bugle sounds "taps," his light must be out and he is in bed. It is a very different day from those others when he roamed the plains on horseback.

Here is a type of the class from which it is proposed to find candidates for admission to Carlisle. The objection has been raised by old army officers that the experiment has been tried before, and that it proved a failure. It is pointed out, however, that the experiments were made with the older Indians, who were like Fire Cloud's father. The promoters of the new plan explain that the recruits are to be taken while they are young, so that they may be trained into military life. They will be taught obedience and respect for others, and they will acquire self-respect and learn how to take care of themselves. It is thought, too, that the discipline of the military school and of the army will give the Indian just the support he needs to help him hold himself up to a required standard.

Indians Naturally Independent.

Those who have been long familiar with Indians are agreed that these people are by nature singularly independent—that in fact they are, individually and as a race, the most independent of men. In their native life it is true they followed general customs of the tribe, but it is also true that each cared little what his neighbor did, or what that neighbor thought of his own doings. In their wars, though they held councils, each warrior fought pretty much in his own way, and there was little of organization or concerted action anywhere. Today when an Indian enters a boarding school he finds himself a part of a great organization, in which he gets a manly school training. He receives his instruction in a class; he is detailed with others for some kind of work; he is a member of a Sunday school; he drills in a company. And notwithstanding his natural independence he readily adapts himself to all this organization.

"The physical examination of cadets for the proposed school, if severe, will prove a stumbling block," said a school superintendent recently, in discussing the new plan, "for the Indian is apt to be unsound." Yes, as one observes him in the schools, he is usually tall and almost always straight. Statistics show that he averages at 16 years of age nearly an inch above his white brother and more than an inch above the negro. This of course contributes to his military bearing. In addition to this, he is usually careful to have his uniform clean and well fitting, and he generally takes pride in the appearance of his company on parade. In some of the schools the boys' rooms are inspected on Sunday morning, and it is interesting to note with what promptness and spirit the Indian responds to this military regulation. He is alert to salute the inspecting officer. His room is almost invariably well swept, dusted, and orderly, and his bed neatly made. Just here, too, his native simplicity comes to his aid, for, his wants being few, he does not accumulate a mass of petty gimcracks for the ornamentation of his room.

Disposed to Shirk Work.

"The Indians are lazy" is the verdict of many of his white neighbors. Evidently application to industry is not ingrained in the Indian's nature, they say. The primitive life of his forefathers did not require it. It has only recently been grafted upon the stock and has not yet had time to acquire a vigorous and widespread growth. It is not surprising therefore to learn that the schoolboys are somewhat disposed to shirk continuous work. They may stick manfully to a thing for a time, but sooner or later they will tire of it and will then break away if possible. On the other hand, the pertinacity with which the Indian pursues his object whether upon the hunt or elsewhere often crops out unexpectedly. It is well illustrated in the case of an Oneida boy who is now one of the older pupils in a certain boarding school. Some three years ago he announced his desire to learn steam engineering. As there was no prescribed course for him he elected to go into the machine shop where he worked steadily for two years, not always in the direction of his wishes, but without ever losing sight of his object. During his summer vacation he secured a job as fireman in the boiler room, working hard for small wages. He is now learning pipe-fitting in the engineers' department. Already he has gained a foothold in the engine room, which has along been his desired goal, and by the end of the year he will be a competent assistant engineer. During all this time the steady growth and improvement in his character have kept pace with the attainment of his purpose.

In promoting the plan for a new school of cadets, reference has been made to the need in the army of more trained men in the various trades, such as blacksmithing, harness making, wheelwrighting, tailoring, and shoemaking. Many of the best boarding schools of today, such as Haskell, Hampton, and Carlisle, are of the "industrial" order, in which these trades are regularly taught to the students, and some emphasis is laid upon the fact that the demand for trained mechanics in the army may be in a measure supplied by the Carlisle cadets.

The Graduates' Future.

"What do you think of a West Point for the Indians?" I asked one of the pupils in a boarding school recently. He was a member of the senior class, and wore the shoulder-straps of a captain in the school battalion. The phlegmatic nature of the Indian had been in some measure overcome by training, and he talked quite freely.

"One good thing about it," he said, "is that it offers a solution of the most difficult problem facing the Indian graduate."

"What is that?" I asked.

"Something to do for a living after graduating," he replied. "A good many of the boys keep on going to school year after year, often passing on from one school to another, just to have a good boarding place, and to postpone the effort of shifting for themselves. They do not know how to start out alone. The Indian service offers employment to many, and some have their own farms. For the rest there is a hopeless outlook in returning to the reservations. If the new school furnished its graduates with appointments in the army they would have something to look forward to, and would not drift into idleness."—William E. Brown, in New York Evening Post.

A STRAIN TO A JAY.

Last week Polly Prim, with her face washed and clad in a new frock, was taken to the photographer's by her granny to have her picture taken. Sure? Was it taken? Nix. Nothing ever happens O. K. when Polly is around. But what she and her pretty dog did to the studio was plenty, and to spare. A series of very funny pictures in color will show the little episode in next week's funny section.

[illegible] WIRELESS TELEGRAPH STATION TO BE INSTALLED IN THIS CITY

Within the next thirty days, a wireless telegraph station for commercial purposes will be located in Colorado Springs.

This announcement was made yesterday afternoon by J. R. Belcher, a representative of the company, who is in the city to make arrangements for a permanent office.

"The apparatus is on the way from Massachusetts," said Mr. Belcher when seen at the Elk hotel yesterday afternoon, "and as soon as it arrives will be installed in this city. Inside of thirty days, the first aerogram will be received in this city. I shall be here for several days making arrangements for the installation of the system. The office will be on the ground floor of some business block, on the top of which we will erect a 30-foot pole for the receiving and sending of messages. The station will be for the sending of commercial messages, the same as those of the telegraph companies. I have just come from Boulder, where we have installed a station which has been in successful operation for the last thirty days."

The American DeForest Wireless Telegraph company is the one which has secured concessions from the Manitou and Pike's Peak Cog railway for the installation of a station on the summit of Pike's Peak. Mr. Belcher announces that this is to be a government station, and that its establishment depends upon the United States Weather bureau, for whose use it is to be constructed. The DeForest company will also use the station for commercial purposes. "It will be one of the most important stations in the country," said Mr. Belcher yesterday.

The establishment of the wireless telegraph station in Colorado Springs will be one of the most important events of the year. The DeForest company has constructed over 50 stations and has over 150 in the course of construction. The first station in this state was erected in Denver and the first aerogram ever flashed through Colorado's atmosphere was sent a little over two months ago. A station has since been established in Boulder and another is being constructed in Pueblo.

As soon as the Colorado Springs station is completed, others will be installed in Cripple Creek, Trinidad, Grand Junction and other towns of the state. "It is our intention to establish a system that will cover the entire country as fast as the apparatus can be manufactured and we have just entered into a contract with the Bell Telephone company for the manufacture of several hundred machines. We expect to have a station in every town of over 3,000 population where it can be made a financial success," said Mr. Belcher in discussing the outlook yesterday.

With the establishment of the local station, Colorado Springs will be in direct communication with the cities of Colorado and of neighboring states where stations have been established. Messages have been transmitted a distance of 225 miles, without relay, and with relay 1,800 miles, which would place this city in communication with all the important cities of the middle west and east. Stations are in operation in St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Fort Worth, Chicago, Milwaukee, Cleveland, Toronto, New York city, Washington, D. C., Key West, and other cities, while others are being constructed in Boston, Philadelphia, Seattle, San Francisco, New Orleans and Brazil. The system is used by the United States navy and war departments, signal corps and weather bureau.

Patrolman C. C. McReynolds covered himself with glory yesterday when he climbed a telephone pole and carried Lineman John Hutton in safety to the ground. Hutton was unconscious from coming in contact with a live wire.

At 3:30 o'clock p. m. a hurry call was received at the central police station for the city ambulance to go to 215 East Willamette avenue. It was learned that Lineman John Hutton, of the Colorado Telephone company, while at work on a pole at the corner of the alley near 215 East Willamette avenue, had touched a live wire and received a heavy current of electricity. His safety belt was fastened to the pole so that when he fell back unconscious he was held by the belt.

Officer McReynolds happened along about that time and dismounting from his wheel proceeded to climb the pole to the rescue of the unconscious man. With one arm around Hutton and the other holding tightly to the pole the officer slowly descended bearing his burden in safety. Willing hands assisted him as he neared the ground, and while the officer was receiving congratulations for his nervy act, citizens in the vicinity were working over the unconscious lineman. He soon revived and declining the use of the ambulance returned to his office to report. Aside from a burn upon the left side of his face Mr. Hutton, who is from Denver, where his wife and family reside, is none the worse for his experience.

North Tejon street was startled by an exciting runaway yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock which came to a hair-raising climax when the buggy was overturned and Daniel P. Higgins, proprietor of the shoe shop at 114 East Cucharas street, and his brother, Patrick, were hurled to the ground, the former suffering a badly cut face and bruised body.

Messrs. Higgins were driving north on Tejon street in a single-seated buggy when, just after crossing Pike's Peak avenue, the horse became frightened at a sudden movement of a man who was crossing the street and started off at a merry gait. After running a half block the horse was blockaded by several wagons in the street and in attempting to make a sharp turn in front of the Santa Fe ticket office the buggy turned over and the occupants were thrown to the ground. Patrick Higgins escaped uninjured but his less fortunate brother fell beneath the buggy and was badly cut and bruised about the face.

The horse dragged the overturned buggy into the Opera house alley, where he was caught. Mr. Higgins was able to drive to his home, 2309 North Nevada avenue, where medical attendance was called.

J. B. FOWLER BUYS A BUSINESS PROPERTY ON CASCADE THROUGH AGENCY OF H. LE B. WILLS & CO.

Joseph B. Fowler, of the Crissey & Fowler Lumber company, yesterday purchased through the agency of Henry LeB. Wills & Co. property at 31 South Cascade avenue from Miss Ellen T. Brinley. The consideration was not given out, but it is understood that the price paid was about $15,000.

The property has 25 feet frontage on Cascade avenue and 100 feet depth. Two buildings now occupy the ground, a one-story blacksmith shop on Cascade avenue, being used by Hemenway & Co. and a three-story brick and stone building on the rear of the lot. The basement of the latter building is used as a storage warehouse by Howell, Puffer & Co. and the third story is the colored Odd Fellows' hall.

The property is one of the most valuable business sites on Cascade avenue and it is expected that Mr. Fowler will improve it considerably in the next few months.

[illegible] HEMENWAY [illegible] MAJORITY OF 2,000

Elected Member of School Board to Succeed Himself for Term of Five Years---Gets Over Seventy per Cent of Vote.

Lowell school	541	48	493	589
Washington school	354	38	316	392

Totals	2416	407	2009	2823

By the largest majority, 2,009, ever given a candidate for election to the school board in this city, O. E. Hemenway was yesterday afternoon elected a member of the board of education for district No. 11 to succeed himself for a term of five years. His opponent was Frank J. Baker.

It was a complete victory for Mr. Hemenway and a splendid recognition of the efficient administration he has given during his term of office. When he was elected five years ago his majority was only three votes over that of D. A. Russell. Although yesterday's vote is not the largest ever cast in an election in this district, the majority given Mr. Hemenway is the greatest that has ever been given a candidate.

The interest in the election was general and the vote polled was heavy. It was a noticeable fact that many of the heaviest taxpayers and representative citizens were among those who voted. Early in the day the interest in the election and especially in Mr. Hemenway's candidacy was manifested, and at least 10 automobiles and 20 private carriages were placed at his disposal.

The reorganization of the school board will take place at the next regular meeting, a week from tonight, at which time the president and secretary will be elected.

[illegible] $453 [illegible] CITY TREASURY

$453 TURNED IN TO CITY TREASURY AS RESULT OF JUDGMENT AGAINST CONTRACTORS' BONDSMEN.

City Attorney W. C. Robinson yesterday turned over to the city treasurer $453, being the amount collected by the city from the bondsmen of Charles P. Quinlan. Mr. Quinlan had a contract for laying sewer extensions in 1903 and while engaged in the work left a trench open and unprotected, so that a milk-wagon drove into the trench, wrecking his wagon. The latter recovered from the city and the latter brought suit against the bondsmen of Mr. Quinlan, and recently received a judgment in the district court.

[illegible] RECORDS BROKEN IN POLICE COURT

RECENT RAIDS ENRICHES CITY TREASURY TO EXTENT OF $190. DAVIS PAYS HIS FINE.

Police Judge A. P. Toomba turned in to the city treasurer yesterday the sum of $562.20, representing the collections of his court for the last ten days of April. This sum, together with $134.15, turned in by Judge Hammond at the time he vacated the office, makes a total of $696.35 collected by the police court during the month of April. The total would have been nearly $1,000 had no appeals been taken. The amount collected and turned over breaks the record.

J. R. Davis, manager of the Commercial club, who was fined $100 and costs for conducting a disorderly house but gave notice of appeal, appeared before Judge Toomba yesterday and paid the bill, amounting to $103.05, including the costs.

Eugene S. Cohen has been appointed clerk in the office of the water commissioner and entered upon the discharge of his duties yesterday.

The hose wagon of Company No. 3 has been repaired and was again placed in commission yesterday. The wagon was upset on Colorado avenue last Wednesday night while responding to an alarm and every member of the crew was injured, so that a substitute crew was placed in charge yesterday. The substitute crew consists of Messrs. [illegible], No. 2; Fitzpatrick, No. 1, and William [illegible], from the extra list. Captain Hornhue, Lieutenant Esch and Driver Eastop, who were injured, are reported as improving.

Reports have been filed with the city clerk by candidates in the recent municipal election showing expenditures as follows: Henry C. Hall, $250 to campaign funds, of which the Democrats received $150; K. M. MacMillan, $152.60, of which $100 went to the Republican campaign fund, and the balance for cigars and printing; W. H. Hoagland, $225, of which the Non-Partisan committee received $100, the Democrats $75, and the remainder for cigars and sundry expenses.

Reports filed with the city clerk for the month of April show that the population of the city was increased during the month by 14 girls and 12 boys. In two instances twin girls are reported.

It was a busy day for Police Judge Toomba yesterday, when he passed judgment as follows: James Harrison, James Ryan, Joe Rowers, and John McHenry, found guilty of being intoxicated, fined $25 and costs; Joe Monday, F. M. Peck and Thomas Couland, guilty of being drunk, $20 and costs each, and John Cartright, for vagrancy, $20 and costs. A. E. Ford, found guilty of disorderly conduct at the Ormonde rooming house, paid a fine of $25 and costs.

CARD OF THANKS.

We, the undersigned, wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our kind neighbors and friends for their goodness, kindness and sympathy and also for floral contributions during the death and burial of our dear wife, and daughter, and sister. A. E. HATCHER, MR. and MRS. B. S. HALL, D. C. HALL.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE.

The manipulation in Gold Sovereign, of which 85,000 shares were sold, was the leading feature of the mining stock exchange call yesterday. The stock opened at 13 and sold down to 12¼. Because of Gold Sovereign, the market was influenced but little activity. Elkton opened at 52¾ and sold down to 51¾. El Paso sold at $2.13 and two small lots of Portland went at $2.00. Isabella was slightly stronger at 23½.

Notice was posted on the bulletin board yesterday to the effect that on May 15 the following companies would be dropped from the list for failure to pay the annual listing fee: Ben Hur, Golden Eagle, Iron Hand and Prin Sett. The first two are on the prospects list; the others with the miscellaneous.

TRIPPY AND BENHARRISON LEASES HAVE JUST EXPIRED

John S. Hunt for the Moose Company Takes Charge of Properties Lately Worked by the Bayard Company. Many Offers to Purchase or Lease These Claims.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 1.—At noon today John S. Hunt, representing the Moose company, took charge of the Trippy and Ben Harrison claims located on Bull hill that have been under lease for over a year past to the Bayard Mining and Leasing company. The future policy of the company regarding the property has not been determined.

Mr. Hunt stated that the company is now considering four offers to sell the property which consists of about nine acres of territory and that the offers range over the $100,000 mark. Over a score of applications for leases have been made but nothing will be done until Mr. J. F. Maynard, the largest stockholder, is heard from. The lessees, who suspended work there today, have cleared about $30,000 from their operations and it is believed that the future of this property is as bright, if not brighter, than ever before.

OPTION EXPIRED ON GOLDEN CYCLE

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 1.—Considerable speculation exists here tonight over the deal involving the sale of the Golden Cycle mine as it is well known that the option held by George Crawford expires today, but no news has reached here as yet about the sale of the mine. It is known that the report of Louis Von Rosenburg, the expert, was highly favorable to the property. The deal involves about a million and a half of dollars and the property to change hands is the Golden Cycle, Theresa and the Gold Knob, making a total of 83 acres.

ROADS NOW PERMIT THE HAULING OF MACHINERY.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 1.—The work of hauling machinery to the Little Giant mill in Pony gulch was resumed today as the condition of the roads is such that teaming is possible. Work has been suspended there for some time because of the impassable condition of the roads caused by the recent heavy snows.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 1.—H. M. Gilbert and associates operating the Longfellow are extending the 270-foot level, crosscutting for the extension of the rich ore shoot being worked by Patterson and company on the Golden Cycle. MORE LINES FOR ELECTRIC POWER

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 1.—The La Bella Power company is getting ready to make a number of extensions in various parts of the district which will enable many companies to reduce the cost of mining very materially. The lines are to be extended down to the Reymer and Banner Gold property and as soon as it gets there a plant of machinery will be installed and mining operations will be pushed forward by Gilbert and company as rapidly as possible.

HOLDING OFF SENILITY.

A famous French general, when asked how it was that he had such an erect carriage, replied that it was because he bent over and touched the floor with his fingers 30 times every day. If he had neglected rigidity of the spine so that he could not do that, he would have had, with its weak abdominal muscles, which result in portal congestion. This portal congestion interferes with stomach health, and with the action of the liver. The phosphoric energy power of the liver is lessened, autointoxication results, and arterio-sclerosis and old age come on at a much earlier day. But by keeping the spine flexible and the abdominal muscles strong and taut, the portal circulation is kept free and old age is held off.—Good Health.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Today's stock market was a striking demonstration of how financial affairs adjust themselves to any contingency that is foreseen with sufficient clearness.

The precipitate fall in prices on Saturday caused real uneasiness throughout the financial district for fear of the consequences of the shrinkage in values, to say nothing of the dangers which were hinted at on Saturday in the vague rumor mongering incident to a bear market. The event of today proves that the precautionary measures which resulted were so abundantly effective as to turn the demoralized weakness into a quite exuberant show of strength.

An important part of the measures in anticipation of course lay with the speculative element itself and were made in the form of sales for the short account which were put out during Saturday in almost unlimited amounts. The volume of outstanding short contracts proved so excessive that the expected offerings today failed to provide material for this potential demand and before the close the shorts were scrambling to secure supplies to make good their contracts.

None of the whispers of money troubles which circulated freely on Saturday was confirmed by events today and this had a substantial influence in convincing many sellers of Saturday that they had been precipitate.

After the urgent demand from the shorts had been satisfied the market became much quieter and showed a disposition to await developments.

The belief in general prosperity seems unabated, but confidence is recognized as a prime necessity in the maintenance of prosperity and there is some question to be entertained whether the events which have shaken speculative confidence in Wall Street have left the full confidence of the business world at large unimpaired. Today's sharp recovery was well maintained and the closing was steady near the best.

Bonds were firm. Total sales par value $2,630,000.

U. S. bonds were all unchanged on call.

CHAUNCEY OLCOTT.

Chauncey Olcott, the favorite comedian and favorite singer, will revive one of his most successful plays this evening at the Opera house, "A Romance of Athlone," written by Augustus Piton, Mr. Olcott's manager. In point of the dramatic interest, it is said to be one of the most successful Irish dramas that has ever been produced. The play is in four acts and four scenes, the entire production having been painted by Louis C. Young, of the Grand Opera house, New York. The first act shows the exterior of a mansion of the Elizabethan era, wings of the French Renaissance enhancing the effect. On the left is a rose garden, much care having been taken to preserve the old-time atmosphere. The second act pictures the elaborately carved oak interior of the same mansion, while the third act produced with romantic result a celebrated ancient abbey, the moonlight streaming upon its ruins and falling with silvery charm upon the waters of Lake Rea, which can be seen from the distance. The fourth act shows an extensive park of giant beech trees, clad in all the splendor of autumnal foliage, and is truly a superb production. The period of the play is the beginning of the past century, and the opportunities it affords for the magnificent in costuming are manifold. Mr. Olcott appears in the role of Dick Ronyane, who possesses those qualities which those who admire the comedian most delight to see him portray, being noble, generous, brave and light-hearted. The popular songs written and composed for this play by Mr. Olcott include the famous ballad, "My Wild Irish Rose."

MARIE FOUNTAIN CO.

The approaching engagement of The Marie Fountain company, Eastern, promises to be a success in all respects.

The reputation of The Fountain company for presenting good clean performances is well known and the popular prices that are charged seems to have struck a popular chord in the public fancy. Already there has been a strong demand for seats for the opening engagement which is for four nights and two matinees beginning Wednesday night, "The Minister's Wife" will be given Wednesday night, also for the Thursday matinee and Thursday night.

Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinee the sensational scenic success "Circumstantial Evidence" will be presented.

THE EMPIRE THEATER.

Last week's performance was so very popular with the public that it would be hard to convince those who have not as yet attended the performance that this week's performance is better than was last week's but such is undoubtedly the case. The performance is finished and most interesting throughout. Glenroy and Russell, two very clever artists open the bill with a little skit entitled, "The Professor's Substitute." The singing and dancing in this act is very clever and while the dialogue of the act is old and not clever the act as a whole is good.

Kenton and Lorraine, London's star musicians, present a musical act that for quality and variety has never been equaled in this city. We have had all sorts of musical acts presented to us and they have been good, bad or indifferent, as the case might be, but it has remained for this team to excel all others. The violin playing of Mr. Kenton and his vocal solo, "Beyond the Gates of Paradise," with the chimes accompaniment is one of the choicest bits of music and singing that one can hear.

The Four Graceful Grohs are the feature act this week and they are certainly marvelous. This is an act which was imported from the east as a special attraction to open the beautiful new Crystal theater in Denver. It remained for the management of the Empire to use an extraordinary effort to secure this remarkable attraction which seldom plays outside of the very large cities. This act proved its popularity immediately by securing most merited and vociferous applause.

"Billie" Ralston, the local favorite, has an exceptionally good illustrated song to sing and is singing it in such a manner as to receive encores at each performance.

The moving pictures are now and excellent in subjects and complete a bill that is far beyond what one expects at this popular priced house.

NEW AMERICAN SONGS AT PERSINGER-TISDALE RECITAL.

At the concert on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Prince, Mr. Tisdale, the English pianist and baritone, will sing several entirely new American songs. He has been singing songs by American composers with the greatest success in the concerts he and Mr. Persinger have been giving throughout the state, and the press is unanimous in praising his beautiful voice and clear enunciation. An excellent program, including some of the best selections Mr. Persinger and Mr. Tisdale play, has been selected for the occasion. It is to be a farewell concert and a benefit for Mr. Persinger, the young violinist, and it will be the last time he will be heard before his departure for Europe. It is announced that [illegible] not be a [illegible] at the [illegible] prices. Whitney & Grimshaw's, Van E. Horton's Knight-Campbell Music Co., Hope Music Co. and Hillyard's.
